Selection of Members to the Hall of Fame

1. A determination prior to the Induction Ceremonies will be made to determine who will be elected and from what era. After the first year, no more than 8 individuals will be inducted every year, two teams and, when deemed necessary, athletic contributors.
2. A nomination form will be placed in the local newspaper and read on the radio station at least one month prior to selection.
3. A meeting will then be held to read and vote on nominations by the committee. A dossier should be made up on each candidate.
4. Public announcement of final selections will be made prior to the Induction.
